

REMEMBERING
Adam Villiers

August 17, 1977 - December 23, 2015

It is with great sorrow that the family of Adam Villiers announces his death on Wednesday, December 23, 2015 at the age of 38 years. Adam was struck suddenly by a fatal brain aneurysm while helping a friend. He grew up in Mission and lived in England as a young adult. He married Michelle in 2009 and their adored son Marcus was born in February 2013. An aspiring musician and worship leader, Adam released an album of praise music, "Show Me The Way To Your Heart" in 2011. It is played on local radio. Admired for his devotion to his wife and son, deep faith, authentic friendship, loyalty - and tolerated for his terrible jokes - Adam is dearly loved and missed by family and friends. He will be forever remembered by his best friend and partner in crime Michelle; and his pride and joy Marcus. Service will be held at 2 o'clock, Saturday, January 2, 2016 at The River Community Church, 14 - 33550 South Fraser Way, Abbotsford. Financial gifts for the family may be transferred at lovethevilliers@gmail.com.

