Tribute from Paul Jacks

Relation: personal contact

To the Children of Aganetha Wiebe,
It is with a great deal of sadness that I learned of the passing of Aganetha.
For me Aganetha had a beautiful spirit. Her life was filled with love and caring for others, especially her children. I don't think that there was a selfish bone in her body.
There was a calmness and a charm about her that I admired. Given where life took her geographically, it is clear that she was determined to make the best of whatever life "served up" to her. She was a survivor.
She was strong of character which will be my lasting memory of her. It seemed that no matter what the challenge was, she met it with energy and dignity.
Please accept my condolences for your loss of a wonderful woman and mother.
Sincerely
Paul Jacks

With Sympathy:
Your mom gave from the kindness of her heart.She spent most of her life, meeting the needs of her family. She and her husband were successful business people, they worked very hard to make a good life for the whole family. She worked long hours with her hands, preparing the fruit from the harvest,canning,baking pies, jams,meals etc.and shared it freely with others.She entertained angles unaware.A God fearing women,who's first interest was in doing the Will of God .she was a peace maker and did not like to see strife.She did her best to love each one the same as the other.She has left behind a wonderful testimony .Im thankful that i knew of her.Love thy neighbor as thy self.

a neighbor in Christ.

Tribute from Agnes Wiebe

Relation: Daughter

She was dedicated to serve and love us all even as Christ loved and gave His life for us. God gave His best and only Son, she gave her best every day. She lived a long and full life. She was promoted to Heaven and the last one to join her family that got to heaven before her. O that will be glory for her!!! What a reunion! I am sure that she heard her Saviour and Master, Jesus Christ tell her "Well done Aganetha, good and faithful servant! Enter into the joy of My kingdom." We have this hope to see her in heaven when God calls us home after we have lived the life He wants us to live and completed our assignments that the Father willed us to.

Luke 12:29 "Don't concern yourself about what you will eat or drink, and quit worrying about these things. 30 Everyone in the world is concerned about these things, but your Father knows you need them. 31 Rather, be concerned about His kingdom. Then these things will be provided for you. 32 Don't be afraid, little flock. Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.

Thank you to Carol Loewen who gave 10 Gideon placed Scriptures in memory of Aganetha Wiebe.
