Relation: Granddaughter

Allan Major was my grandfather, although I did not grow up in the same city as him I do have the best memories of visiting him. In my early childhood I can remember taking the greyhound to see him in Alberta. By the time I reached my teens I spent a few summers out in Chilliwack with him. At that time he was really into golfing and I would go and lug around his clubs. Unfortunately I did not know my grandpa well, I wish I had spent more time with him. What I can say is he always made me feel welcome and loved while I was there. He will forever be in the hearts of those who loved him.
