Tribute from Karola & Larry Stinson

Relation: Neighbor

Larry and I are deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Annie. She was a wonderful person who touched the lives of many. She certainly touched ours.

When we moved to Greendale we were welcomed by your parents and over the years we always felt blessed that Annie and Henry lived next door.

Your mother supported me when I needed help most. I have never forgotten her kindness and my gratitude has never abated. To me, she was a good woman who truly lived and practiced her faith. She had a remarkable life and will mourned by all who knew her. We share your sorrow and your celebration of her life.
