She worked at the Boy's Shop and then started working in the ladies' wear department at Eaton's for 16 years. Annie was active in the altar guild at St. Thomas Anglican Church for many years. She was also a gold medal winner at BC Senior's Games in lawn bowling. Annie was always known as a very well-dressed, classy lady. She is survived by her husband Jim, son Jim Jr. (Phyllis), granddaughter Theresa and great-grandchildren Roxanne, Nicholas and Amber; grandson Scott and great-grandson Dylan; siblings Marie, Benjamin and Beatrice. She was predeceased by her parents and siblings Mabel, Cecil and David. The family wishes to thank the ICU unit and staff of Chilliwack General Hospital, the doctors and staff of Valley Family Practice as well as Rev.
