Tribute from Cindy Loewen

I will miss Bernie's smiling face and friendly chat on Sunday mornings. My best memory ever of Bernie, which I'm sure he was tired of me always remembering; and now, for possibly the final time: It's Sunday morning, the pastor is well into the service and it's quiet. All of a sudden, we hear the musical score to Hockey Night in Canada on CBC. Bernie stands up, makes his way slowly (as fast as he can with all these people sitting in the pew) while his phone continues to play Hockey Night. I'm sure there were many silent chuckles. He told me later it was the wrong number! Bernie, thanks for the smiles, and I am so happy for you that you have been able to go Home. See you later, friend!
