Tribute from William van der Sloot

Relation: I was her violin teacher in Medicine Hat

To all of Beth's extended family,

The tributes and music today were incredibly touching. They so beautifully spoke to the way that Beth has touched all of our lives and truly brought more light to the world. Mostly, I want to thank the Schaufele family and the Nickel family family for sharing so openly a culture of hope and love - a culture which was made richer through the life of Beth. Know that we all share your sadness and your hope. The van der Sloot family

Tribute from Trevor Dyck

Relation: Friend

Dear Joel and Family, we are so sorry for this incredible Loss you have faced and our family an so many others have felt this loss too. Our thoughts and many prayers are with you in this difficult time. We were so Blessed to Have Beth as Charlottes violin teacher for the past 7 years. We saw Beth's Passion and love for teaching and Her incredible encouraging instruction over the years. We watched the virtual service for Her yesterday, what an incredible tribute to Her, and a rich legacy she has left with Her devotion to Jesus, music and all those around Her and the lives she has touched. While we grieve for you and your family and for the Loss of Beth we have an eternal hope that we will all see Her again one day. Again our Hearts and Prayer are with you in the coming days ahead, and are here for you all!

Tribute from Marnie Goheen

Relation: My son and daughter-in-law were family friends and colleagues. I've enjoyed being in the audience when Beth has performed.

Praying for you all since we first heard. Praying for small blessings to sparkle into the darkness and amidst the pain. Praying you will make time to remember Beth--together. Praying that Jesus' 'untimely' death will nourish and strengthen you as you sit in the shadow of his cross. Praying that the glory and Hope of his resurrection will be the light in your dark tunnel. Job 19 has been really helpful for me. Grace.... Hope.... Peace....
