Karl and family
We were saddened to hear of Birgit's departure from this life. We have many fond memories of you and yours from over the years and pray that you will experience God's comfort in your sorrow. We all live in the eager expectation of better things in eternity with Our Lord and Saviour and with our saved loved ones.
Joyce and I would like to attend the service on Saturday, but have already committed to attending a wedding at exactly the same time. However, we will be praying for you and yours.

Family and friends are more important then ever at this time of need.
Wish I could be there too but I am sending you big hugs and lots of love!
