Tribute from Anna Wallis

Relation: Highschool Sweetheart & First Love

There was a time when you held my heart. It was a time when we were carefree and had no worries. We felt like we could do anything. And sometimes I think we tried. I never thought I would be so devastated to hear that you are gone. I have always loved you. Even all these years later. You were so special to me for such a long time. You were my entire world. I often think about you and hoped that things were going good. Your daughters are growing up into such beautiful young ladies and I know you loved them so so much and are so proud of them. The world is just not the same without you and when you left this world you took a piece of my heart. The piece of my heart that you always had. I am so grateful that you were such a big part of my life. It helped me become who I am in a time when I didn't know who I was. When you would sneak in my window just so we could cuddle. Or how my love for playstation comes from you. When I heard of your passing it was like a lightning bolt shot through me and jolted me back to a time when everything was so much easier. Rest easy my dear Colin. It is just not fair that you are gone. My memories of you I will continue to cherish and hold close to my heart. Watch over your girls and continue to protect them and give them your love. Forever in my heart you will be. Sending so much love and strength to your parents, brothers, daughters, and everyone that knew you. Gone far too soon. Love Anna
