Tribute from Helen Nickel

Relation: A distant relative of her husband and friend.

I loved your Mom. She was a generous and gracious soul. I visited her a few times at the townhouse and always there was tea ready to serve with her wonderful baking goodies. She was an example of hospitality. The Lord blessed her with a very sweet personality and love for others. These memories are a gift for you as a family and also others who knew her. May you cherish them and never forget the legacy of faith in God and her genuine servant heart that she left you.
