Wiebe and Jeske Funeral Home Staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Denise Moedt

Relation: Friend

So sad to hear about Liz's passing. I met her first at WW's and then followed her as she set up Healthy Hearts. Her energy, intelligence, and wonderful sense of humour drew everyone to her. I can only imagine the hole she has left behind. Life isn't fair. Rest in peace Liz!

Relation: Cousin

My dearest cousin Liz,

I miss you already and being so far away makes it even worse. I am just so happy we had the chance to speak with you just a few weeks ago. You were weak but still so brave and looked so incredibly beautiful. Although we lived so far apart we had the chance to be together at the cousin reunion in 2019, our visit to Calgary in 2023 where you and Paul drove all the way from BC, and the visit from you and Margaret in our home in 2024. You and Andy were pillars in my first months when I first came to Calgary in 1976. I know I will miss you so much. I will miss your contagious laughter, reminded me so much of your mother. Wenche and I loved every minute we could spend with you. It did not matter what we did you were always so thankful and you let us know every time. You will be in our hearts for ever. We love you, Liz.

Wenche and Helge

Tribute from Mary Lammirato

Relation: Friend

I knew Liz as a student in Calgary, first in Biology at St. Francis High School and then later at university when we shared a house with another friend in Sunnyside.

I admired Liz; she was a serious student, she was politically aware and politically active. She was always positive and full of joy. I can still hear her laugh, which came easily and often.

We lost touch after university but I have thought of her often. We had our 50th-year high school reunion this month and I had hoped to see Liz in particular. She was a gem, beautiful inside and out.
