Retired Captain Doyle, born in Dublin, Ireland, passed away in his sleep February 1, 2016 after a short battle with cancer. Leaving Ireland he realized and experienced his second home in Canada and joined the Canadian Military in 1957. George lived a life of adventure, love, laughter, and camaraderie. He flourished in his career and loved his family above all else.

Please join his daughters Arlene, Janit, Elizabeth, husbands, grandchildren, extended family and friends in celebrating this charming and charismatic Irish man on what would have been his 83rd birthday. Celebration of Life/Wake, will be held February 18, 2016 at 2 pm to 8 pm at the Royal Canadian Legion# 280, 5661 Vedder Road, Chilliwack, BC, light supper provided.
