It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Rod Moran at his home in Chilliwack, B.C., on Tuesday, September 8th after a long battle with cancer. Rod will be lovingly remembered by his wife Sherry, his sons Rod (Jenn) of Maryhill, Jason of Kitchener, and Christopher of Victoria, B.C., grandchildren Emily, Michael, Mackenzie, and Amber Moran, his mother Frances Moran, and his sisters Carol (Gordon)Wing, Janet (Rolf) Huber, and Mary (Jeff) Eby. He will be missed by Sherry's sisters Penny (Paul) Young and Wendy Pettit and by one niece and twelve nephews. Rod was predeceased by his father George in 1970. Cremation has taken place. As per Rod's wishes, a gathering of his wonderful friends and neighbours will take place in Chilliwack in the near future. In lieu of flowers and in gratitude for the excellent care and support provided to both Rod and Sherry by the Abbotsford branch of the BC Cancer Agency, donations in his memory may be made at bccancerfoundation.com. A special thanks to family physician Dr. Phil Weatherston and his team. Words can never express how much we appreciate your incredible kindness and exemplary care.
