Tribute from Steven La Hay

Relation: My Former Commanding Officer

I am so sorry to here of George's passing He had a great influence on the lives of a great many young men and we were better for knowing him

Tribute from David Hagen

Relation: Uncle

Dear Doris, Lori, Stephen and family,

Our condolences from all of the members of the eastern branch of the Hagen family. George inspired us all with his quiet dignity and courage through his long fight with cancer, as did all of you in the way you cared for him. He will be missed.

David, Christine and family

Tribute from Karen Gardner

Relation: Daughter of Ken & Elvira Wellburn

I am sorry to learn of Mr. Prince's death. It was a pleasure for me to visit with him during his short time at Christine Morrison Hospice where I work as a volunteer in Mission. I did not know Mr. Prince well but he was a good friend and neighbour of my parents for many years on Jay Crescent in Surrey. I also enjoyed meeting Lori at CMH a couple of weeks ago. Where have all the years gone? I was 21 years old when my parents first moved to Jay Crescent. I will be 60 in about 6 weeks time!!! I am sorry to learn of the loss of such a fine gentlemen. My sincerest sympathies to Doris, Stephen and Lori and all of the many other family membes and friends as well.

Tribute from Charles Davidson

Tribute from Craig Cooper

Relation: Birdland Neighbour / Air Cadets

To Doris, Stephen and Lori:

My sincerest condolences to you all. George was a great man and mentor. His positive contributions to the BC Air Cadet movement will be paid forward for many years to come. Take care and my thoughts are with you.

Tribute from Joel Hagen

Relation: Uncle

Dear Doris, Stephen & Lori, Sean, Debbie, Paige & Michael,

Speaking as a nephew, our family was blessed with colourful uncles (one word: Ole), but even though George was quieter, he still had qualities I really admired, like his easy laugh, and a passion for something that always made him seem cool to me -- his interest in aviation. When we were kids, and we'd go to the Abbotsford Air Show, George was the one who knew everything about all the planes.

I am saddened as our family grows smaller, and sad that all of you have lost a great husband, dad, and grandfather.
