Tribute from Lois Hildebrandt

Relation: sister-in-law

My husband and I met George very soon after we returned from a 6 month duty in Uganda and Kenya. We had been told by Helena beforehand that we must not tarry as she wanted Henry around to walk her down the aisle. We found George to be a talent in many areas. Always studying as to how to do things even better. His very detailed sculpture of the mountain railroad scene that filled their patio. Right down to the goats on hillsides and train stations. Then the airplanes. We even watched as he launched his boat. He was interesting to listen to on almost every topic we brought up. I saw him beginning to fail and was able to have a short covid visit in the hospital. He is free of the pain he had suffered for years and I, with Helena are able to rejoice at the thought of seeing him again. Praying for you Helena
