Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our afflictions, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul. He leads me in the paths of righteousness. For his name sake. Psalm 23

Please accept our heartfelt sympathy on the passing of our beloved brother Gerry. He was a strong & passionate person and such a loving brother. We will always remember having fun as he chauffeured us all around to see things. We are so thankful for the fun memories we had with him. Tribute from Joseph Laszlo

Relation: Friend

Gerry and I both came from railway backgrounds that had us both gravitate to the longshoreman industry. I can still recall as a casual going with Gerry to deliver yellow page phone books in between trying to get work on the docks. Gerry was knowledgeable , bright, funny as hell and always a joy to talk to or listen to his stories. He was truly missed when illness took him from docks and I chatted with him the day he retired. He'll missed and his compassion, joy and ready smile will always be remembered.
