

REMEMBERING
Glen Hildebrandt

August 23, 1968 - January 9, 2019

Glen Abram Hildebrandt was born on August 23, 1968 and he passed away after an almost four year battle with cancer on January 9, 2019.

He is survived and loved by his wife Laurel, sons Donovan and Joshua; his parents Abe and Alma Hildebrandt; his sister Donna (Dan) Zacharias; brother Brian (Dianne) Hildebrandt; nieces & nephews Lynette (Artisa & Azzira) & Melanie Zacharias; Lauren (Colin) Dueck; Lee, Alana (fiancé Levi); father-in-law David (Margaret) Friesen; sister-in-law Darlene (Dan) Wolf , niece & nephews: Austin, Ginelle (Lyle), Dawson ; brother-in-law Jonathon Friesen, niece and nephews: Caleb, Chelsea, Connor; as well as many beloved friends, family and colleagues.

Glen was known for his great big heart filled with kindness, service, patience and the love of God for all he encountered. He was a gentle giant. His sense of humour was always something that lightened our hearts, even on his last day. He has left a huge hole by leaving this world and will be sorely missed. He fought the good fight & was rewarded with the eternal crown.

There will be a viewing Thursday evening, January 17th from 7pm - 8pm and a celebration of his life Friday, January 18th at 1 pm both at Emmanuel Mennonite Church, 3471 Clearbrook Road, Abbotsford. A reception will follow with an open mike for those who want to share memories of Glen.
