Tribute from Rod Bitterman

Relation: Client at Cascade Marine

My sincere condolences to Kim and children, Kelsey and Kyle. Greg was a great help to me when I and my friends were buying boats over the past few years ago. I bought a Princecraft boat that Greg had previously owned and done all the custom work on it. He was glad that I now owned it. The boat was a kind of connection that we shared. He even talked about if I wanted to sell it he would be interested in buying it back. Greg helped me last year purchase a second larger Princecraft boat that I needed his counsel in selecting. He made it happen for me. Greg was always interested in "being there" for someone in need. I valued and appreciated his friendship and integrity. Sincerely, Rod
