Tribute from Wiebe and Jeske Funeral Home Staff

Tribute from Kate Quenville (Stokes)

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

Dear Jane, Malcolm and Mary,

I was so sorry to read about your Mum in the paper this morning. It was also the first time I had heard about your Dad's passing too. Doesn't matter how old we are or how much we expect it to happen, a parent's death leaves a void in our lives. I have memories of your Mum, tea in the kitchen and laughter. Particularly, laughter.

I hope all three of you are well. My thoughts are often with you as I have wondered where you all are and how you are doing.

Fond memories and much love,

Kate Quenville (alias: Cathy Stokes!)

Tribute from Maryanne Belcher

Relation: friend and neighbour

Dear Jane, Mary and Malcolm,

Thinking of you and wishing I could be of help somehow.

Your Mom was a nice lady and I will remember her and say a prayer for her.....Maryanne

Tribute from Megan Doell (Belcher)

Relation: Family friend

Jane, Malcolm and Marymybestfriend, it was with great sadness that I read of your mum's passing. I will forever remember fondly your mother telling us to "watch the roads mind" on our way to school or calling me from the top of the stairs that it was time to go home after playing for hours downstairs.

Another funny to me thing was seeing her iron the wax paper for wrapping sandwiches. A different time but the best of times. My sincere condolences to you.
