

REMEMBERING
Harvey Shewan

August 4, 1940 - April 21, 2026

Harvey Shewan, beloved husband, dad, granda and friend passed away April 21st, 2026, surrounded by family at Chilliwack Hospital.

Born on August 4th ,1940, in Dyce, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, Harvey was the son of Charlie Alexander Shewan and Elsie Kemp (Hutton) Shewan.

As a young man, Harvey travelled to Canada with his parents on a vacation. During that visit they made the life-changing decision to make Canada their home, eventually settling in Oshawa, Ontario.

In 2002 Harvey and his wife Donna moved to Chilliwack, British Columbia, following his children and their families.

Harvey was a man of quiet strength, humble faith, an unwavering devotion to his family. His life was marked not by grand speeches, but by the everyday acts of love that shaped all of us.

Harvey was known as the "social butterfly" of the neighborhood by his family and friends.

Harvey is survived by his wife of 65 years, Donna Maire; his daughter Shari (Michael) and his grandchildren Aaron (Cheryl), Caci, Chelsea and Andrew.

He was predeceased by his beloved son Allan, whose memory remained closed to his heart. Also predeceased by his parents Charlie and Elsie Shewan;

as well his siblings Christine (James), Charlie II (Hilda) Shewan, Robert (Adelin) Shewan, Elsie (Jim) Adams, James (Molly) Moir.

