Tribute from Stephen Johnston

Relation: Friend

Our Condolences Jean and family. Nancy and I met your family when you had such a busy life raising kids, Hugo was a High School Principal, Jean was coordinating MCC Self Help projects and you took time for two young married "kids" from Alberta. Even though we spent hours trying to win a game of "Dutch Blitz" or "rook" at your table you never gave up on us. Nancy and I met your family in a time of need and you Took us in and loved us. For this we will be eternally grateful as well as Hugo's kind demeanor. Thank you Hugo. Thank you Jean and your Dutch Blitz brood which takes no prisoners.

Tribute from Linda & Robert Suter

Relation: I taught with him at Yarrow

To all the relatives of Hugo Friesen: I taught at Sharon Mennonite Collegiate at Yarrow for four years overlapping with Hugo. I greatly appreciated working with him as Principal. I also enjoyed visiting in his home with Jean. Because Jean graduated fro Bluffton where I later taught, they also stayed with Bob and me when they came to Bluffton. Blessings to you all. Linda (Falk) Suter
