Relation: friend from the Esso

I knew Mr.Jake though my place of work. I would call him Mr.Jake and he would laugh and say call me,Jake,just Jake. He was a special person always ready to smile and chat. I have already been asked where is the man collecting the bottles for the kids and when they have been told he has passed on they express there condolences for the family. I myself will miss our talks when he stopped by my work or when I met him just out walking. I use to tell people it takes only one person to help change the world and make it a better place and Jake did more than his share. He will be missed but not forgotten.
My condolences to all his family and friends, I will miss you Mr.Jake.

Tribute from Marg Warkentin

Relation: Work

Life....so fragile, Loss....to soon, Hearts....so broken, Jake was a special man who would allways smile and say Hi. Jake lived behind our gas station and would come by a few times a day to see if there were any cans or bottles as we had customers who leave us there's for Jake. He lived his life with courage and grace. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal. Hugs and prayers to the family . Marg Roy and David ,Fraserway Esso.
