Tribute from Wiebe and Jeske Funeral Home Staff

Wiebe and Jeske Funeral Home Staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Dan & Heather Bergmann

Relation: Cousin

Our most sincere condolences to the family and loved ones of Jim. My favorite memories of Jim are the Christmas family gatherings we used to have at the South Abbotsford Church when we were all much younger. Besides all the great food and seeing the relatives again, I most fondly recall the floor hockey we used to play. Jim and his brothers would always get right in there, along with many others, and make it an enjoyable time for us younger guys. Just a small thing, but a good memory for me. I'm sure that he is being surrounded warmly by our loved ones that have gone on before him. Thanks Jim.

Tribute from Emmy Gazsity

Relation: colleague

My condolences to Jim's entire family, including his probation family. I worked with Jim as a probation officer in Williams Lake, and then again I reconnected with him when he worked in Kelowna. Jim knew how to fly a flag, and his office was adorned with flags from around the world. He had stories for how he obtained some of those flags. I am sorry for his loss, there are many who will mourn his passing.

With greatest sympathy,

Emmy

Tribute from Ed & Louise Janzen

Relation: MCC

So surprised to see that Jim passed away, but happy in the thought that he is resting in peace. We knew him at MEI, of course, but cherish the memories of our time together in Jamaica. Blessings and grace to you as you go through this time of mourning.

Tribute from Ernie & Fritz Warkentin

Relation: friends

Thanks for allowing us into your life in the last days of Jim's life here on earth. We got to know each other in the two years we lived in Jamaica. We sure enjoyed each others company and would get together as much as we could to "bear each others burdens and joys" in the "land we loved, Jamaica."

Trusting God will meet your needs in the lonely times as you learn to adjust to life without Jim.
Love, Ernie and Fritz
