Tribute from John Skorupa

Relation: Family friends

Barbara and I just learned about John's sudden passing and it is difficult at times like this to find words that could help you deal with the sorrow and pain.

You had much to be proud of John not only for his many outstanding rugby achievements but that he was also a wonderful and decent person who helped earn the long time respect your family had in our community.

May his soul rest in peace.

John & Barbara Skorupa.

So sad to read about John Cannon's untimely death. I've read the entries on the rugby club's Facebook page and see that he was well-loved in Coventry UK, and that some of the students he coached are now playing in New Zealand. So many people across the world shocked and saddened by his passing. Condolences to his family and friends.

Dearest Peter & Jane, It is with such sadness that I am sending you this message. I do not have the words but Tom does.

"It's said that we've been here before. In the end our souls soar to find that place once more. And to my children I say, we are never far away when we part someday. For I believe there is no the end. We'll be together again and again. If this is true, I say to you. I'll see you again my son, my friend. There will be no the end."

I wish I could take you both in to my heart and wrap my arms around you and whisper in to your ears...He was loved. He is loved. He will always be loved.

Condolences from Tom, Linda, Gillian and Sydney.

Tribute from Al Charron

Relation: Teammate and friend

I am so saddened by John's passing. Rugby Canada, his teammates and the rugby community as a whole are in shock and pass along sincere condolences to his parents Peter and Jane as well as John's whole family as well as his large circle of friends the world over.

John was a fantastic rugby player but an even better person- it goes without saying he will be missed dearly and never forgotten.

His smile will be what I most remember of John....he could light up a room and change your mood from bad to good in a second.It was a pleasure to play with him and call him a friend. Rugby was blessed to have had him involved as a player and a coach - he offered so much in both capacities and many people were fortunate to benefit from his talent and personality.

Rest in Peace John- your time unfortunately was short on this earth but you made a large impact on many while here.

Al Charron

Tribute from Julie Burke

Relation: Christina's sister

Although I never had the privilege to meet John in person....his love and energy transpired that. I will always be grateful for the love he gave my sister. He brought her to life and to a level of happiness to I had never seen. She was more herself with him then ever. I've heard so many stories.

Remarkable how one man could live so vibrantly and passionately. Blessings and love to you and your family.....which we are all part of with John and Christina's love binding us together..xo My father always says the only thing to be....is grateful. Grateful for love, the laughter, the passion, the music. Grateful for so much I imagine. My only wish is that I could be there to love and support my sister during this time. With the deepest love and respect....

Julie Burke

Love from my kiddies...Ryan, Megan and Ava xo They already called him Uncle John
