Tribute from Peter Mitchell

Relation: acquaintance

I was most impressed by the turnout for Gary's memorial, I had to park a block away. As an old prison guard I count heads as a matter of habit. I can't be precise but there were well over 100 in attendance. I'm not sure what the protocol is on these occasions but after his daughter's most eloquent and touching tribute, I started to applaud, and needn't have worried, because I was quickly joined by many others. Seems to me that Gary's family is all the memorial he requires.
