

REMEMBERING
Jutta Engelbrecht

February 2, 1927 - February 27, 2016

Born in Germany, but after the death of her beloved husband Georg Lehmann, came to Canada where she settled and eventually happily remarried. She loved fun, travel, gardening and dogs - especially dogs, which she called "poochies". Jutta's latter years were spent in the Hogg Pavilion where her care was exemplary - Gail could always make her laugh; Jackie - always gentle and caring; Veronica gave the BEST baths; plus so many more who can never be adequately thanked. But her Companion Par Excellence was Ruthann Harper. We will all miss Jutta.

