Tribute from Glen & Marty Hermanson

Relation: Kay and Ed were family friends for many years

Dear Shirley, Abe and family. We were saddened to read about Kay's passing, although we know she's in the place she longed for now. I remember the summer trips to our family farm in Waldheim, many years ago. Kay was such a warm, fun loving woman, always a joke that she enjoyed laughing at, as much as her audience! In later years, after Ed passed away, and Kay moved to Tabor Court, I was delighted to rekindle our friendship where I had the pleasure of caring for both Kay and John. Kay and I shared many heart to heart talks, and a lot of laughs! She will be missed.
Love, Glen & Marty Hermanson

Tribute from Dan Oakes

Relation: Co-worker with Ed SD.34

Remember Kay as gracious and hospitable

Tribute from Dr. Robert and Gail Turner

Relation: lifetime friend

Dear Shirley and Abe and family,
Kay was a special person, and she always made me feel special. She always had a smile, and always wanted to know how I and my family were doing...how was my mother, how was my sister, how was Gail and how were the boys...
When our son Craig was born, Ed and Kay drove through deep snow to deliver his present. A little snow was no big deal for Ed's truck!
Years later we went through the pain of their son Gary's cancer and death, followed some time later by our son Craig's death in a plane crash.

Kay and Ed's faith was epic. Kay would always give me updates on Mr. Westmacott, the Nazarene preacher from the early 60's.

Kay's family and her religion were everything.

We will miss her and always remember her with fondness.

Love, Robert and Gail
