

REMEMBERING
Lorraine Trites

November 13, 1926 - October 24, 2015

It is with great sadness that the family of Lorraine "Lolly" Trites announces her passing on Oct. 24, 2015. She was born in Vancouver and moved to Langley 45 years ago.

Lorraine & Jim spent many happy years as hobby farmers in Langley. They enjoyed spending summers at their trailer in Pender Harbor with their many friends; fishing, sharing meals, playing card games and swapping stories. Lorraine never turned down an opportunity to be with her family or her friends. They were everything to her.

Lolly is survived by her daughter, Kellie White (Walter) of Langley, son Jim McClurg (Danielle) of Kamloops, son Dannie Trites (Angie) of Mission, son Doug McClurg (Karen) of Langley, and brother Andy Dean of Comox. Lorraine enjoyed 12 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren, all of whom brought immense joy, love and happiness to her life.

Lolly is predeceased by her husband of 40 years: Jim Trites, daughter: Charlene Beaulieu, son: Barrie McClurg, and grandson: Douglas McClurg, Jr.

We are celebrating mom's life at her last home, The Avalon Gardens, on Sunday, Nov. 8th from 2-4:00 p.m. Friends are welcome to come.

Lorraine lived a life full of fun, laughter and love.

