She cared and shared time, stories, laughter and incredible food, especially her mashed potatoes and Rice Krispie squares that didn't need to be square. Marlene was a breath of fresh air ... always friendly, open and positive. Deepest condolences to her family and friends. I know she'll live forever in your hearts. I've uploaded a photo showing Marlene and her brother Earle (my dad) from 2018 (I think) and from their childhood in Nova Scotia.

Tribute from Marie Black

Relation: Daughter-in-Law

Marlene was a wonderful mother-in-law and friend to me. She was a kind, caring and independent lady. When she and Bun moved to BC they stayed with us for a couple of months and introduced me to boiled dinner, a Cape Breton staple, and she would have dinner ready when I came home from work. The past five years Marlene overcame many medical challenges but could not beat Covid 19. Our many memories of you gives us comfort at this time.
