Tribute from Steven D. Warkentin

Relation: My Grandmother

I remember talking with my Grandma after my Grandpa had been gone for about 5 years. She liked to visit with other widows who were lonely and were looking for support. They had asked her how she got by without Grandpa. I remember so clearly what she said, "I have Jesus in my life. He hears me. I talk with him and he hears me." She commented on how some of the ladies snickered. She told me she didn't worry too much about that. She knew he was alive in her and she lived in that peace. She aksed me how they could get on without having him in their lives. She loved all of the family so much. Sometimes when I was with her visiting, she would show me her list of how she was praying for all of her family. She had a calendar with everyone's birthday on it. My grandmother was changed by Jesus her Lord. He was so real to her and has been such an inspiration to all of us. This was truly someone who had been transformed by the very real love of God. I have no doubts that she is being blessed in the presence of God, her very heart's desire. We miss you and are so proud of the life you lived in obedience to Him. I am sure he is even more proud of you than all of us are.
With much love and affection, Steven, Kelsey, Jacob and Elise Warkentin.

Tribute from Jessie Klassen

Relation: Friend

I lived at Park Place with Mary for many years. I still remember her husband John. It was so nice to have visits with her after I moved out. She would gather all the ladies together for a visit when I came out to visit my husband’s graveside after I moved into independent living. God Bless you all.

Tribute from Jennifer (Hooge) Stein

Relation: Friend of family

She was always such a kind and thoughtful person! I grew up going to the same church as the Warkentin family. She was always looking out for others. I so much appreciated her loving care.

Tribute from Ed & Anita Klassen

Relation: Friend

Our condolences to Ron, Dan, Judy, Lydia and Alan. Your mother was always a kind and gentle soul. She will be missed but we rejoice with you that she is in Heaven with her Savior whom she served so well.
