One of my best memories of Lloyd is he always called Lady boober hound. Until this day I still call my dog boober hound. And all the wonderful backyard bbq's.

Relation: Brother

My oldest Bro! Not only was he a brother but one of the kindest people would ever meet. We didn't lose a brother we gained another powerful Angel.

I never actually got to meet you until I was older in life because you were in the Air Force overseas. But for some reason, I felt like I knew you forever.

I remember the cuckoo clock you brought from Germany and how much mom loved it. It drove me nuts at night when I couldn't sleep it would always remind me of the time lol.

As I got to know you, you're more than just a brother you always made me laugh. I love the times that we spent together, I wish I could have some more. But that's what we always say when the loved one passes away..

Relation: Mexican Friend and Manager Condo

I feel grateful to have known him, even in a small way. I will always remember his warmth and the deep appreciation he had for his home and community. I remember him holding a beer in his hand, smiling and sharing joyful stories by the pool. I never saw him without a smile on his face.

Please know that my thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time. May he rest in peace, reunited with Heidi.

Relation: Sister

I'm heartbroken over the loss of my oldest brother, Lloyd — but to me and all his family members we called him Cub or Cubby. He truly loved his family and friends with all his heart, and that's something I'll always admire about him.

He built a beautiful life in BC with his family, then purchased a condo in Mexico where they spent many months of the year enjoying the sunshine. They met so many amazing friends there who became like family, especially after the loss of Heidi. He loved sitting at the pool at the condo drinking a few beers with the many friends he met there. After a few beers out would come the spoons which he would tap along with the music that was playing. That was just who he was — loved having a good time, and everyone loved being around him.

I'll forever hold onto the memories, the laughter, and the love we shared with him and his wonderful friends at the Mexican condo. He leaves a space that can never be filled, but also a lifetime of moments I'll cherish every day.

Rest easy, Cubby. You will always be missed and never forgotten.
