Tribute from Bernie and Mary Schmidt

Relation: Friends

Dear Carol and Dave, We want to express our sympathies to you on the passing of your father, Pastor Nicholas Dyck. He was our pastor when we lived in Abbotsford in the early 70's. We were so pleased and felt cared for when your parents came to visit us when we were new to the church.
Blessings, Bernie and Mary Schmidt

Tribute from Dave Gerbrandt

Relation: Neighbor

My sincere condolences to the family and friends.
Was a neighbor of Nick's for a few years and could not have met a more caring, gentle, loving, sincere and Godly man. Always smiling and wanting to know how I was. A true example and testament to God's character. It is an honor to have met him. Well done Good and Faithful Servant!

Tribute from Jeanette Dillabough

Relation: A friend in passing.

To the Family,
I send my deepest condolences. You don't know me but I met Nick in the hospital in Oct 2020 where I am a social worker. I went to see him to do gather information so we could begin discharge planning for him. From across the room he said, "Hi Jeanette!" I asked how he knew my name. He said, "It's on your nametag." I was astounded that this 99 year old man could read my nametag from 20 feet away. I explained who I was and why I was there. He asked if I believe in God. I said yes. He gave me a little booklet, possibly Our Daily Bread. He said to read it when I get home and then get down on your knees. He said to pay attention to the promises. I said I would. The next day I came back to tell him that I did what he asked. He said, "Good keep doing it." And I did.
On Chritmas Day 2021, I met him again. I saw he was on my unit so I brought him a card. I told him that I am giving him this card to remind him of the positive impact he had on my life. I explained that I run a housing program called Raven's Moon in Abbotsford as well as two men's recovery houses. I explained that I told the men the story from Oct 2020 and said this man has been on this earth for 99 years (at the time), and exclaimed, "He must know something." I will always remember this man. Love and peace to you all. Jeanette

Tribute from Chris Karding

Just learned that Nick passed away, he was the pastor in McConnell Creek when we started to attend church. My Dad John Karding held him in very high regard until he passed away five years ago. If Dad was still alive I am sure he would have attended the funeral. He made a difference in our families life.
