
REMEMBERING

Orville Klassen

July 19, 1929 - December 25, 2021

Orville Klassen passed away peacefully at Langley Memorial Hospital on a snowy Christmas Day, surrounded by his family. He is survived by his loving wife Alice (Brooks), his daughter Cynthia, his son Tim, his three grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews. Orville met Alice at Millar Bible College and they were together for 65 years. A humble man from Beaver Flat, Saskatchewan, he will be remembered for his colourful stories, photo collections, and unconditional love for his family and friends. He loved bringing his camera everywhere and capturing memories with loved ones, which we will continue to treasure as a family. He was involved in the Church throughout his life, giving generously to missions and organizations. He was selfless and joyful, giving thanks regardless of his circumstances. Our family is deeply saddened by our loss, but we celebrate Orville's strong and unwavering faith in Jesus Christ. In light of restrictions, a memorial service is still to be arranged.
