

REMEMBERING
Patricia Anne Fredette (Patty)
February 25, 1951 - February 5, 2022

Patricia Anne Fredette, a resident of Abbotsford, British Columbia, entered Heaven on Saturday February 5, 2022.

Patty was born on February 25, 1951 in Calgary Alberta. Having grown up in a military family, Patty lived in many places during her childhood. She spent 5 years in Germany as a young girl after which the family moved back to Alberta and then eventually to British Columbia which is where she settled for the remainder of her life.

She raised her 2 children in Surrey and Abbotsford while working at her own electrologist business. Later in life, Patty managed a group home for disabled adults. Upon retirement Patty traveled to many places often as a support missionary. Oh, how she loved to travel and meet new people and see different cultures.

Patty loved well and she loved generously, often giving sacrificially out of what she had to her children, friends, and even strangers. The homeless were always on her heart and when she heard of a need she was among the first to help. She not only showed her love in tangible ways, but in her hours of prayer for the hurting or lost.

Patty will be lovingly remembered by family and friends for her passionate love for the Lord, her sense of humor, and her devotion to her friends and family.

She was preceded in death by her parents Arthur and Frances Fredette, her brother Gary Fredette, and followed into eternity ten days later by her brother Mervin Fredette.

Patty is survived by her son Jason (Ting) Ogilvie of Harrison BC, her daughter Leanne Layton of Victoria BC, and her former husband Jim Ogilvie of Maple Ridge, BC. She is also survived by 4 grandchildren, Seth Ogilvie, Josh Ogilvie, Jessica Layton and Jordyn Layton as well as her brothers Dave Fredette, Phil Fredette and her sisters Jeanette A they, Mary Jane Blanchard, Geralyn White and Jacqueline Luxon.

Friends and family will be notified when memorial arrangement have been set.
