Tribute from Glenda Kandt

Relation: Family friend of many years

To "Mrs. Routley's" Family.....I would just like to say to Lisa, Barb, Dan and their families how sorry I am on the loss of their wonderful Mom and her nice laugh. I have many nice memories of her in Williams Lake and then a few in Abbotsford. Even my Mom, Elsie, would ask how Pat Routley was doing on a regular basis when she was well. When I passed on the information that she had passed away, she thought for a minute and then acknowledged she remembered her well. She also passes on her sympathy. We have the hope that the next thing we will hear is Jesus coming and we will meet Him in the air, and to be together forever with family and friends in Heaven! That sounds almost unbelievable and too good to be true to us, except that's what His Word promises. Let us keep looking up!
