

REMEMBERING Pieter Taams

July 9, 1940 - August 1, 2016

born July 9, 1940 in Holland, passed away August 1, 2016 at home in Abbotsford. He is survived by his wife Ellen, son Aaron, grandchildren Reese and Hunter and other relatives and friends. He was predeceased by his son Pieter Jan. Dr. Taams has been working in the field of Orthomolecular, Holistic, and Naturopathic Medicine since 1972. He pioneered vitamin therapies and mineral applications in British Columbia. He has treated many patients. He has degrees from Leiden State University Medical School, Vancouver General Hospital, Riverview Hospital, Ontario College of Naturopathic Med., and John Bastyr College of Naturopathic Medicine and has received several awards in recognition of his meritorious contributions. He had many hobbies including architectural design, photography, and animal husbandry; organic gardening and innovative care in longevity medicine.
