Tribute from Peggy Gish

Relation: Cousin

Jo and family. It is with sadness that I learned of cousin Dick's passing. We shared with pride the history and knowledge of our Newton ancestors. I will always remember the photos of Dick as a young boy with our Mom Kay Newton, his young Aunt, sister to Dick's Father, and visiting with Dick's family in Calgary. Dick lived a wonderful life with you all, and I hope your shared happy memories will bring you peace at this sad time and always. Peggy (Newton-Knipe) Gish. Qualicum Beach. BC.

Tribute from Juanita Michael

Relation: sister-in-law

Dick was my brother-in-law. Hard to believe but this tall, lanky man drove an Austin when he dated my sister. My first real memory of Dick is when along with my sister they took me on a vacation to Parksville. Dick was a loving father to his two children Richard and Patricia. Richard was a chip off the old block, sharing many interests and adventures including their love of fishing. Sadly Richard passed away on October 23, 2013. If Patricia needed comforting when she was young it was her Dad she wanted. Christmas dinner was a gathering of family. Traditional Christmas Crackers were replaced with Kinder Eggs. After dinner the toys were put together, played with, shared and sometimes stolen. Much fun and laughter. When their children became adults Dick & Jo spent their summers at Bonanza Resort and their winters cruising the world. Life was Good. But life is change and change it did when Dick closed his eyes and peacefully drifted away leaving his wife, family and friends with cherished memories.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS, NEVER A THOUGHT AWAY.

Jo and family,

I am very sorry for your loss. I have fond memories of chats with Dick at Green Lake and Horse Lake as well as in Vancouver when we met at various Gill family events. I hope you are well supported during this time of grief. Shaundehi Runka

Tribute from Phyllis Gill

Relation: Friend

Dick and Jo were great friends to both George and myself. We had wonderful times together including a fantastic cruise through the Panama. We used to visit each other in the Cariboo each summer either at our place at Green lake or over at their place at Horse Lake, good food and wine. I will miss Dick and my thoughts are with Jo and the family

Tribute from Wayne Gill

I met Dick and Jo through my parents when we visited Dick and Jo at Horse Lake. I remember Dick giving me instructions on how to fish Horse Lake and then later I found out the Jo out fished him on a regular basis. Dick also taught me that most knives are not sharp enough. I enjoyed his company when we got together and will miss visiting him at either Horse Lake or Green Lake every summer.

Dear Jo and Family. We're so sorry to hear of Dick's passing. He will certainly be missed by you, your family and your many friends and acquaintances. Both you and Dick were such fabulous friends of my late father. All of the good times spent together at Bonanza and Crown Point meant so much to him and to Marcia and me as well. Dick was such a thoughtful, caring and wonderful man. With deepest sympathy! Ken and Marcia
