Tribute from Lori Paul

Relation: Friend for forty years.

Richard's heart was huge, and kindness for all creatures shone in his bright eyes and warm smile...I'll never forget the great gift of his friendship! I send heartfelt condolences to his family at this sad time. May you take comfort in the knowledge that Richard was loved by so many!

Tribute from Bob Buhler

Relation: 45+ year friend

I remember meeting Richard, and it always was Richard, in junior high school. He Just had that sense of humour that i liked.

He was a friend from day one and no, we did not always agree, but we respected each other's opinion.

We would visit each other over the years, always with a story. He sure had his physical challenges but was never anything 'less' of a person.

His love of what the land could produce was his true passion, but so was what he could do with it.

He was kind, he would share with those that had less or nothing.

Our world needs more kind souls like him.

Peace Richard

Tribute from Betty (Dyck) Loepky

Relation: Friend from school.

Condolences to all of Richard's family and friends. I pray that God's peace will give each one comfort in this time of bereavement. I met Richard in Elementary School (I think we were in grade 1). He was in my class for most of our elementary school years, sharing the same teachers and the memories of growing up in Yarrow. My family was new to Yarrow. They were immigrants and struggled in adapting to a new country. Richard was always kind and respectful. I remember visiting with Richard was at the Yarrow Elementary School reunion a number of years ago. He spoke as an old friend, sharing about his life, his interests, as well as his health challenges and struggles. Rest in peace, Richard.

Tribute from Judy HETHERINGTON

Relation: Friend

I am saddened by Richard's sudden departure. My hope lies in the faith that he is rejoicing with his Saviour and dancing with enthusiasm! I can imagine him beaming! He will be so very missed!

Tribute from Gary & Lori Banman

Relation: Cousin

A beautiful garden now stands alone,
missing the one who nurtured it
But now he is gone,
His flowers still bloom, and the sun it still shines,
But the rain is like tear drops, for the ones left behind,
The weeds lay waiting to take the garden's beauty away,
But the beautiful memories of its keeper are in our hearts to stay,
He loved every flower even some that were weeds,
So much love he would plant with each little seed,
But just like his flowers he was part of God's plan,
So when it was his time he reached down his hand,
He looked through the Garden searching for the best,
That's when he found Rick, it was his time to rest,
It was hard for those who loved him, to just let him go,
But God had a spot in his garden, that needed a gentle soul,
So when you start missing Rick, remember if you just wait,
When God has a spot in his garden, He'll meet you at the gate....

Our thoughts & prayers are with you.
