

REMEMBERING

Ronald Laframboise

December 31, 1982 - December 14, 2010

Tribute from Wiebe and Jeske Funeral Home Staff

Wiebe and Jeske Funeral Home Staff send our condolences to family and friends. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Tribute from Jesse Laframboise

Relation: Brother

Ron,

I find myself reflecting on all the good times we had growing up together. Even though you were often a pain in my side I couldn't have asked for a better brother. It's unfortunate that you weren't able to realize your awesome potential in life as we all saw it in you. You probably don't even realize how much you will be missed by us.

Tribute from Wil & Michelle Moroz

Relation: Work with Ron's brother Jesse

Our deepest sympathy given to your families loss. Our prayers go out to your family Jesse and encourage you to always remember your brother/son with the fondest memories.

Tribute from Rob Bourcier and Tania LaPalme

Relation: co-worker

Our sincere condolences Jesse - on behalf of myself Tania. Our thoughts and our prayers go out to you and your family.

Rob

Tribute from Chelsea Kleckner

Relation: Cousin

Ron,

I could always count on you for anything. You were an amazing guy! So easy to like and you fit in everywhere. I am so sorry that it never felt that way for you. You deserved better. You will never know how much you meant to me and how much I am missing you. I hope you have found some sort of peace and that you will watch over us until we see you again. Love you Cousin Ron!

Tribute from Linda Love

Relation: Mom

I wake up with tears and go to sleep with tears. I've lost my son, my friend, my angel. Life is not the same without him. Maybe I'll be able to write something more uplifting down the road, but I'm still too heartbroken. Thank heavens for my other son & friend Jesse & his family as well as all the support of my family and friends. I couldn't have gone on without them.

Tribute from Kris Kolind

Relation: Cousin

I will always remember all the great times that we shared together. A day hasn't gone by where I haven't thought about you. I wake up every morning hoping that it was just a horrible nightmare and that the pain will go away. I miss you so much and I wish we had more time together. My children were truly blessed to have known you and it saddens me to think that you won't be here as they grow up with Kyla and I. You have left a huge void in all of our hearts that will never be filled but we will always remember you as an amazing person. I wish that you could have found your soul mate before it was too late so that you could have become the proud father that I know you would have become. I hope that where ever you are you can see how much everyone cared about you and that you can rest in peace knowing how much you touched all of our lives.

Tribute from Debbie & Karl Kolind

Relation: Aunt & Uncle on mothers side

We are calling it 'empty arm syndrome' and it is much more painful than empty nest! It is what we feel when we reach out to hug you or call you or even think of you....and you're not there. You are more than a nephew-you are as much a part of us as those born to us. Our homes were full of laughter and love because the five of you did everything together and we got to be a part of it. You, Kristopher and Jesse opening Christmas stockings [in matching pjs from Nana and Papa] and playing with whatever crazy thing was in them. Five noisy big wheels in the cul-de-sac, street hockey & loosing team roller games, backyard pool fun, riding bikes through our forest, water on the trampoline, tea parties with Chelsea [extra sugar!], scarfing candy 'til you were sick with Kristopher, visiting Shannon in Vancouver, weddings, births, helping with yardwork or babysitting nieces & nephews, Viking boating, river rafting, tennis over Oscar's house, weiner roasts at Karl's ridiculously huge fires and most of all-family game nights! So many memories to hold onto!

No, we hadn't much money and couldn't help in that area and are saddened that our love and support just wasn't enough. I actually hope we don't win a lottery as you mentioned cuz we wouldn't have you here to share it with! But if we do, we'll donate to mental health to help stop the horrific pain this 'disease' causes.

Love you forever, thank you for being such an incredible part of our lives Ron,
Hugs n more hugs, Debbie and Karl

Tribute from Shannon Kolind

Relation: Cousin

Ron, you are in so many of the best memories. From me bossing you, Kris and Jesse around in some game or other as kids, to you and Chelsea visiting in Vancouver - moving us out of the mouse apartment (where you didn't believe there were mice but enjoyed breaking all our stuff to fit in the garbage), beerfest, and of course mario party, with you always as DK. You were (and will always remain) one of my very favourite people. Your sense of humour and heart were always right on the surface. There was never a time that I didn't want you around. I can't imagine what must have been going on in your head that was in such conflict with the person who will always be more of a brother than a cousin in my heart. I wish you knew, cause you couldn't have known, the effect you had on people; that no one could help but love you and love having you around.

Thanks to everyone for the support and love.

Tribute from Justin Hawkes

Relation: Chump

You were such an amazing friend to have in my life. Always with a smile and great attitude. I miss you so much man. It still hasn't fully sunk in and I keep waiting to see you pop online, or get a text/call. Wherever you are know that you were loved so much and you will be sorely missed. Thank you for always being there for me when I needed a hand and never judging. You were one of my closest buds and going forward without you is painful. I know you've found peace and I'm looking forward to seeing you again one day! I love you man and your family are in my prayers.

Tribute from Aurelie

Relation: friend

My dear Ron. I still can't believe what happened. There are some days where I go online and I expect to see you popping up, telling me the last jokes you played on your cousin. Sometimes, I'm even tempted to text your number or to email you, thinking I gonna get an answer back, all of this was just a nightmare. But you're not here and I miss you terribly. I wish we had more time to spend together. You are precious: loving, kind and always smiling. I miss our little chats over the computer, I miss having you over for movies...there is nobody anymore to eat the chocolates I carefully hid. I wish I could have done more for you. Wherever you are I hope and pray for you to be happy, peaceful and I hope now you can see and feel how loved you are by your friends and families. I miss you so much Ron and I hope you now can see how exceptional you are.
