Relation: Celiac Friend

Good byes are never easy.

Condolences to George and Family

Rose was a dear friend who came into my life at the beginning of my celiac days. That teaching quality she had provided much information to us all as a group and we all flourished.

Her radiant angelic smile welcomed all. She was a lady who spoke her mind, contributing too many great conversations, laughs and yes tears. There was never a dull moment but just a JOY to be with.

Rose was kind, compassionate and helpful which contributed to her very creative mind and joys of sharing. She was a very talented lady.

Dear Friend, I will miss you.

George and family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Rose was always such a good friend, shared so many celiac recipes, welcomed us to her home and entertained us often. I shall always treasure the quilt she made me and the many beautiful card crafts she created! Rose will always be remembered fondly. Until we meet again my friend, until.

Tribute from David J Mattina

Relation: Mother in law

I will miss you dearly Mom. I have only good memories of knowing you for 39 years. You were always a supportive advocate and mentor in my life especially when Sandra got sick and things got really tough.

I did everything I could to save your daughters life but unfortunately came up short.

You were there for me when I needed you most with your kind words of encouragement telling me that I did everything I could.

I will cherish our last phone conversation. I could feel that you were slipping away but couldn't bring myself to believe it just like I did with Sandra.

I hope that you two are catching up, looking down at all the people that loved you guys so much helping all of us all get through life from time to time.

I may call on you for guidance when I need it most and I know that you will be there for me.

I lost a dear friend, confidant and cheerleader.

You are irreplaceable. God bless you Mom.

Your loving son in law.. David
