

REMEMBERING
Sheilagh Simpson

October 15, 1919 - March 6, 2016

Sheilagh Colleen Simpson passed away peacefully in Abbotsford B.C., on March 6, 2016 after a brief illness.

She was born October 15, 1919 during the British Raj in India and had a unique and largely happy life in India, Britain, and Canada. She was predeceased by her husband Arnold Simpson in 1996. Although Sheilagh was a fiercely independent and determined woman she was extremely social and was loved by many relatives, friends and acquaintances. She traveled on her own well into her 95th year and was still shopping on her own until a few months ago.

Sheilagh is survived by sisters Phyllis Moore and Gloria Roberts, daughter Carol and her husband Lalit Khosla, son Andrew and his wife Caroline and beloved grandchildren Anita, Lalita and their families and Gillian and Adele and their families and many nieces and nephews.

We will miss her intensely but recognize that her suffering is over and she is on to a better life.
