Tribute from Arlene Les and Yulin

Relation: Friend of family

Dear Caroline, Al, Anya and Hannah,

Our deepest sympathy to you and all your family. I know that you were very close to your Mom and Grandma. Caroline, I admired how you looked out for your Mom and often went the 'extra mile' to care for her and for her to be a part of your lives. May the true meaning of Christmas bring you comfort and peace. We will keep you in our prayers.

Les, Arlene and Yulin

Relation: friend

Dear Caroline & family,

What an amazing story your Mom had! I'm always in awe of the different ways that God grabs hold of a person's life. Love & prayers for you all as you celebrate, grieve and remember your Mom/Grandma.

Love Deanna

Tribute from Dorothy (Fong) Pang

Relation: Friend

Dear Tin, Caroline and Gary, I am sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs. Pon. I have much tender affection for your mom. I remember her as kind, generous and compassionate. She was my mom's most valued friend and I remember their regular lunches together. Mom always came back in a good mood. Your mom will be sorely missed and fondly remembered.

Relation: friend

Dear Caroline, Tin and family,

Our heartfelt condolences to you at this time of loss. It is hard. We remember your mom fondly and with love. She was a wonderful, kind, loving, wise and Godly woman and influenced me so positively as I was growing up. Be comforted by God's love.

Blessings,

Yee
