Our hearts go out to all of you...over the years the stories of Sophie and her faith have been inspirational - we know how much she will be missed. She lived a life centred on her Saviour - a centredness that will continue in her new, eternal home.

We are thinking of you as you remember and celebrate a life well lived. What a blessing that your mom and grandma left you with so many precious memories and so many lessons taught in how she lived her life. May God's presence be very real to you as you say good-bye and may you each be drawn close to your Saviour as your thoughts are turned towards eternity.

I have been thinking about and praying for you Christy, Kelly and Ev. Sophie sounds like a dear woman with whom you've had many special memories. May this time of sadness, coupled with the celebration of her life and all she meant to you, draw you close to God and each other and be a testimony to those around you.

Tribute from Ray Harms-Wiebe

Relation: Neighbour

Dear Family Members of Mrs. (Sophie) Dueck,

I want to express my heartfelt sentiments as you celebrate Mrs. Dueck's life and mourn her passing.

I remember Mrs. Dueck for her generous, loving spirit and genuine commitment to Jesus and His Kingdom. Along with the Bahnman tribe, I learned to fish on the beam that joined our farm properties and received valuable life counsel from Mr. and Mrs. Dueck along the way.

Personally, I am very grateful for her prayers and support, from when I was a mischevious young neighbour boy to recent years when she continued to show keen interest in my work with MB Mission.

My prayers are with your family in these days. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servants." (Ps 116:15) I hope to follow Mrs. Dueck's example.

With gratitude and sympathy,

Ray Harms-Wiebe
