

REMEMBERING
Sydney Palmer

April 10, 1918 - January 3, 2013

He is survived by his daughters Cheryle (Jim), Jacqueline (Jim) and Michelle (Kevin); 6 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; his sister Violet and his nieces and nephews. Sydney was predeceased by his wife Joan and grandson Darren. Dad was born in Pennygraig, Wales and in 1927 homesteaded in Saskatchewan. Forced to leave during the depression, he rode train tops to Vancouver. He joined the Merchant Navy and then returned to England to marry and join the Royal 74th Light AA and the 8th Army returning to Vancouver in 1956 to settle with his young family. Dad was a wonderful son, husband, brother, father and grandpa. He will be deeply missed. Until we meet again Dad.
