Tribute from Henry Wiebe

Relation: earlier friendship from Black Creek, then S. Abbotsford Church

It was with surprise and sadness when we learned about the passing of Werner. Our sincere condolences to you. Our great grandchildren love to play with the nice toys that Werner made. He was a wood artist. My last visit with him will long be remembered.

Love & prayers,
Henry & Marge Wiebe

Tribute from Martin Davies

Relation: Vern built our home.

Dear Dirks family...I was so saddened to learn of the death of Vern. I read it in today's edition of the Comox Valley Record. In doing so I also learned of Gertraud's earlier death. My heart goes out to the whole family but especially to the Dirks children. Vern built a beautiful home for Cynthia and myself on Pridy Rd in Comox in 1976. During the build, Cynthia (deceased 2016) and I shared many beautiful moments with Vern, Henry and the crew. He prayed for the health of our young son Tim. He shared his faith with us most gently. He was instructional in leading us to the Lord through his participation in the Full Gospel Businessman group. I could share so many good memories of Vern, but space does not allow. I wish his family God's blessing. I am sure they are at peace knowing their parents are resting with the good Lord. Love to all. Martin Davies, Comox. B.C.
