Tribute from Harvey & Janice Sommerfeld

Relation: Uncle

Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the Scheier family at this sad time. I have many fond memories of Onkel Willi and he always seemed to care what I was doing.

May God bless all of the family.

Relation: God Father

It is with a Heavy heart that we send our sympathies to the Scheier family. Uncle Willy was a great man and I have fond memories of sitting with him watching Hockey and especially the BC lions when on tv as a young child.

Together with my wife Gina and our entire Family we wish Peace and understanding as God has called him home with the rest of his siblings. God Bless Yesterday we said our final goodbyes to Opa Scheier. Three & a half years ago we were told he only had 3 months left, but he wasn't ready to go yet. He wanted to watch his great grandsons grow from babies into little boys. He wanted to celebrate more anniversaries with his loving wife. He wanted to be surprised by a perfect great granddaughter who inherited his crooked toes. We laughed when we showed him her feet and he just smiled and told her "these feet will take you far".

Opa had a dry wit and a very loving heart. His grandkids never got too big for a hug, and he gave the best hugs. His hugs were always all in; he would plant his feet, open his arms wide and hold on tight. And it was never just one hug; if you were saying your goodbyes and got one of his first hugs, he would always circle back around for another. He was also the only person who ever called my brother "Denny".

He was born in Poland on October 1, 1933, was the oldest of 8 children and the last of his siblings to pass into God's care. He first met Omi when he was just a baby; they were neighbours and played together as children until the war forced the families flee. Fifteen years passed before they happened to cross paths again. They found each other again after both had immigrated to Canada and settled in Winnipeg. "Well of course, in the meantime, she was big, you know. She didn't want to play in the sandbox no more." he once told me. They were married on May 28, 1955 and celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary shortly before his passing.

And now all I can think to say is Thank-you Opa. For your courage, sacrifices, determination, hard work, faith and your love. Because without You and the remarkable life you lived, there would be no Us. You kept saying that you wished you could do more. You did enough, and it means everything to Us.

Until we meet again <3
